Wednesday 20 March	Valletta, Malta	08:00	-

MONDAY 18TH MARCH

Today the ship will berth in NAPLES – This city offers a mix of breathtaking beauty and a strong sense of life being lived to its limits. It is squeezed between Vesuvius, Europe's second-largest active volcano on one side and the sulphurous springs and boiling mud pools of the Flegrean fields on the other. The beautiful island of Capri is a 'must-see' when in Naples so we strongly suggest you join the ship's optional excursion.

TUESDAY 19TH MARCH

Today's last port of call is MESSINA where we will be berthing at 8.00 am. Amongst the many optional shore excursions offered by the ship, Taormina is always a favourite. Spectacularly perched on the side of a mountain, Taormina is Sicily's most popular summer destination, a chic resort town beloved of holidaying high-rollers and visiting celebs. And while it is unashamedly touristy and has a main street lined with high-end designer shops, the town remains an achingly beautiful spot. At 6.00 pm the ship will start its journey back to Malta.

WEDNESDAY 20TH MARCH

Arrival at Malta where you will disembark from the MSC Bellissima.
